"This drop board is so stable and rides so smooth. I think I may prefer it over my first love." -Josh S

"With a wide range of products that both give you good value and quality, as well as being an environmentally conscious company, Landyachtz is a great brand to buy your first board from. Since a lot of the boards use either a mix of fiberglass, bamboo, bamboo, maple, foam and carbon fiber constructions they can shred for a long time." -Heelsidechill.com
